

WHITE CLOUD COMMUNITY LIBRARY

LOCAL HISTORY SECTION PHOTODUPLICATING AGREEMENT

In order to maintain the integrity of our collection, the White Cloud Community Library has adopted the following guidelines for duplication and use of its materials.

Conditions:

- ☞ No material from this collection shall leave the premises.
- ☞ Because of the age and condition of the materials, the library reserves the right to prohibit the reproduction of fragile or large items.
- ☞ The library reserves the right to limit the number of copies made.
- ☞ Photographic reproduction is provided for one-time use. Material in this collection may not be reproduced elsewhere without the specific written permission of the White Cloud Community Library.
- ☞ When used in publication, or other commercial use, all reproductions from the library shall have the following credit line: "White Cloud Community Library—(name of appropriate collection, i.e. Douglass Collection)".
- ☞ Copy negatives become the property of the White Cloud Community Library.
- ☞ Reproductions are made upon request and must be paid for before taking possession.
- ☞ The applicant assumes all responsibility for obtaining any necessary copyright clearances and agrees to hold the library harmless for any failures to obtain such clearances.

You must read and sign the attached "Notice" concerning copyright restrictions.

(12/03)