GREAT LAKES CARING HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Great Lakes Caring Hospice volunteers are compassionate, giving individuals from all walks of life who share the most precious gift they have-- their time -- to enhance the lives of others.

Great Lakes Caring is always happy to connect with compassionate people who want to give back to their communities in a meaningful way. No special skills are necessary-- just a listening ear and an open heart.

Some ways you may be asked to help are...

- Providing Companionship
- Listening to Life Review
- Reading
- Doing Puzzles
- Taking Patients Outside to Sit in the Sun
- Respite for Caregivers
- Running Errands
